Definitions: Richmor Aviation, Inc. (referred to as the “School”); the “student” is the participant in a structured training program conducted by the school and is more particularly described in Article VIII of the school Catalog; the “FAA” refers to the Federal Aviation Administration. The Operations Catalog, Training Syllabus and Federal Aviation Regulations are available from the school for the student’s use and purchase.

Minimum Hours: The hours provided for in the tuition charges above are the minimum course requirement. The student fully understands that he/she may be required to take additional instruction in order to meet the proficiency standards required to satisfactorily complete the FAA written or practical test(s).

Tuition: The student also acknowledges that the written and practical tests are a requirement for Graduation and the FAA license is required for enrollment in subsequent courses. The written exam fee is $175.000. FAA Designated Pilot Examiner Fee at student’s expense.

Terms: The school agrees to provide the student with the resources, facilities, and adequate instruction to complete this course of study in order to qualify him/her for the FAA written and practical tests for a Private Pilot Certificate.

Prerequisites: The student must be at least 16 years of age; be able to read, write, speak, and understand the English language and must obtain and maintain at least a valid Class III FAA Medical Certificate. Further information regarding prerequisites and enrollment may be found in the Operations Catalog, Article II.

Advanced Credit: The school is restricted by FAA regulation from granting more than fifty (50%) percent of the course requirements as advanced credit as the time of enrollment when the flight time was logged at an approved school; or twenty-five (25%) percent if the flight time was logged under Part 61 of the Federal Aviation Regulations.

School Operations Manual: The School Operations Manual can be found on the Richmor Flight School website. Students are required to always carry an accessible electronic or printed copy during a flight lesson.

THE REVERSE SIDE OF THIS DOCUMENT IS IN ADDITION TO INFORMATION STATED HEREIN AND HAS THE SAME FORCE AND EFFECT.

Enrollment: The school reserves the right to adjust tuition rates before the completion of the course.

Additional Expenses: The student can expect an expense for charts, maps and publications. The approximate fees for additional expenses have been given in the "Tuition Charges" section above, as well as in Article IX of the Operations Catalog. The student may choose to pay: *(1) the full tuition price for all courses in advance; *(2) the price of tuition for each course at the time of enrollment; or *(3) a-la-carte, in which case the flight cost must be paid immediately upon completion of flight or ground training. * A student will not be allowed to continue flying on a debit balance.

Employment: The school disclaims any responsibility to guarantee any employment to any student upon completion of any course agreed to herein.

Termination: The school may discontinue training for reasons of safety, misconduct, unsatisfactory progress, irregular attendance, or violations of school or FAA regulations.

Cancellation: A student may cancel training or voluntarily terminate by completing and submitting the "Notification of Intent to Withdraw" form available from the Manager, Assistant Manager or Admissions Office. He/She is entitled to a refund as stipulated in that Section. Cancellation of individual lessons scheduled must be made 24 hours in advance and subject to 1 hour aircraft and 1 hour CFI time.

Refunds: Upon termination or cancellation, the student is entitled to a refund as stipulated in Section 10.1 of the school catalog. Books and supplies may not be returned for a refund. The student must complete and sign a request for refund, any monies due the student will be refunded within thirty (30) days.

Change of Circumstances: The student is required to contact the Business Office immediately upon change of address, telephone number or financial circumstances. This includes, but is not limited to employment, housing, visa status, etc...

I ACKNOWLEDEGE THAT I HAVE READ THE FOREGOING AGREEMENT AND CONSENT TO THE TERMS THERIN, I ACKNOWLEDEGE THAT I HAVE RECEIVED AN OPERATIONS CATALOG, A TRAINING SYLLABUS AND A COPY OF THIS AGREEMENT, WHICH I MAY RETAIN FOR MY OWN RECORDS.
